Separated and Divorced Parents

Married parents are automatically joint guardians of their children. Neither separation nor divorce changes this.

By law, an unmarried mother is the automatic guardian of a child born outside of marriage. In some circumstances, unmarried fathers have automatic access. The service should be informed about access rights. Unmarried fathers will automatically become guardians of their children if they meet a cohabitation requirement. An unmarried father who cohabits for 12 months with the child's mother, including 3 months following a child's birth, will automatically become the child's guardian. This provision is not retrospective, so guardianship will only be acquired automatically where the parents live together for at least 12 months (applies to children born after 18 January 2016.)

- We cannot refuse either parent to collect their child unless a court order is in place.
- We ask that parents give us information on any person that does not have legal access to the child.
- Where custody of a child is granted to one parent, we would ask you to clarify the circumstances with us. This information will remain confidential and will only be made known to the relevant staff. If there is any legal documents i.e. custody order, barring order we would ask you to provide us with a copy to keep on file.

ALL ABOUT ME (THIS IS OPTIONAL)

We believe it is important to know as much as we can about a child before they start our service. Completion of the following section of this registration form is optional for parents and guardians, but we believe it helps us to get to know the child and helps settle a child into the service if we know things about them.

Does your child have any brothers or sisters?

What are the names of other family members and other significant people close to the child?

Do you have any pets?

What languages are spoken at home?

What is your child's favourite food?

Does your child have any particular play interests at the moment, or particular toys he/she likes to play with?

How do you comfort your child when he/she is upset? Does he/she need any comfort toys?
